MEDIA INFORMATION

On behalf of the Anaheim Ducks, welcome to the 2013-14 National Hockey League (NHL) season. We hope to make your job covering the Ducks as easy and pleasant as possible. In order to help you achieve your goals in the most efficient manner, we have a few procedural guidelines of which you should be aware.

Media credentials are issued to working media only. All season and individual game credential holders should enter through the press entrance off Douglass Avenue (Northeast corner of the building). The press entrance and press will-call opens two and one-half hours prior to all games. Credentials are non-transferable, and unauthorized use will subject bearer to ejection from Honda Center and result in a loss of credential privileges.

Season media passes will be issued to recognized newspapers, magazines, television and established radio stations as well as websites affiliated with major broadcast outlets. Requests for credentials must be made on company letterhead. Credentials will be distributed on an individual basis. Season pass holders must notify the communications office of their intentions to cover a game in order to reserve press seating.

Individual game credentials should be requested in writing through the communications department (e-mail or fax) a minimum of 24 hours prior to game time or by 2:00 p.m. Friday for all Saturday or Sunday contests. You can email requests to agilchrist@anaheimducks.com, or fax to 714-940-2925. Pre-arranged passes must be picked up at the press entrance located inside the northeast entrance. Credentials will be issued on an availability-only basis.

Credentials are good for admittance to the arena, press box, press dining room and both locker rooms. We suggest coming to the morning skate if you need an interview before the game. Both teams' locker rooms will open five minutes after the last player has left the ice, following the game's conclusion. Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a working atmosphere. ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPHS ALLOWED DURING MEDIA ACCESS PERIODS.

Interviews that need advance preparation or special accommodation can be arranged by contacting the Ducks communications department. This includes all live television interviews for pre and post-game.

Photo credentials will also be issued in the same manner as other passes, with camera positions assigned by team photographer Debora Robinson; photographers should check in with Debora in the press dining room prior to game time.

Telephones for the working media should be ordered through Shelly Baker with Honda Center at (714) 704-2408.

Facsimile and photocopy services are available by contacting the Ducks communications department prior to the game.

On game days when the Ducks choose to practice, they will take the ice at 10:00 or 10:30 a.m. The visiting team's practice usually starts at 11:30 a.m. Please call the Ducks communications department if there is a question regarding either team's practice schedule. ALL requests for in-between period interviews must be made by the time of the Ducks' skate that morning.

We hope this outline of procedures and guidelines will assist you in your coverage of the Ducks and the National Hockey League at Honda Center for the 2013-14 season. Please don't hesitate to contact us if you need any additional assistance. We look forward to working with you this season.

Sincerely,

Alex Gilchrist

HENRY & SUSAN SAMUELI

ANAHEIM DUCKS HOCKEY CLUB, LLC & ANAHEIM ARENA MANAGEMENT, LLC

Susan Samueli was born and raised in Los Angeles, CA. She earned a B.S. in Mathematics from UC Berkeley in 1972. From 1972 to 1985 she was with IBM Corporation, where she worked initially as a software programmer in the Federal Systems Division, Westlake Village, CA, and then as a Systems Engineer in the National Marketing Division, Los Angeles, CA, providing technical marketing and sales support for IBM's mid-range computer systems. In 1985 she left IBM and focused her energy on raising her children, at which time she developed a keen interest in alternative health care. She developed an active consulting practice in the areas of nutrition, homeopathy and Chinese herbs, and subsequently received a Ph.D. degree in nutrition from the American Holistic College of Nutrition in 1993 and a diploma in Homeopathy from the British Institute of Homeopathy in 1994.

Henry Samueli was born in Buffalo, NY and grew up in Los Angeles, CA. He earned a B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. in Electrical Engineering from UCLA in 1975, 1976 and 1980, respectively. From 1980-1985, he worked in the defense industry and held various engineering and management positions in the Electronics and Technology Division of TRW Inc., Redondo Beach, CA. Since 1985 Dr. Samueli has been a professor in the Electrical Engineering Department at UCLA, and since 2003 he has also served as a Distinguished Adjunct Professor in the Electrical Engineering and Computer Science Department at UC Irvine. In 1991 he co-founded Broadcom Corporation, a global leader in providing semiconductor solutions for wired and wireless communications and he took a leave of absence from UCLA in 1995 to be at Broadcom full-time. Dr. Samueli serves as Chairman and Chief Technology Officer of Broadcom and he helps drive the vision of the company's research and development activities. He has published over 100 technical papers and he is a named inventor in over 70 U.S. patents. He was elected a Fellow of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE) in 2000, a member of the National Academy of Engineering in 2003, and a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 2004.

In December 2003 Susan and Henry purchased the management contract for the Honda Center sports and entertainment venue, creating Anaheim Arena Management, LLC, to oversee all operations of the arena, and in June 2005 they purchased the Anaheim Ducks National Hockey League club, Honda Center's largest tenant. In 2012 Venues Today Magazine ranked Honda Center 10th in the world in gross ticket sales over the past decade, and in 2007 the Anaheim Ducks became the first California team ever to win the Stanley Cup championship.

The success of Broadcom Corporation has also provided Susan and Henry the opportunity to support many worthwhile nonprofit organizations. After Broadcom's initial public offering in 1998 they created the Samueli Foundation and to date they have gifted over $250 million in the areas of Education, Health, Social Services, the Performing Arts and Jewish Culture. In 2003 and 2004 Susan and Henry were listed among BusinessWeek's 50 Most Generous Philanthropists in the nation. In 2012 they joined the Giving Pledge, initiated by Warren Buffett and Bill and Melinda Gates, whose members pledge the majority of their wealth to philanthropy.

Since relocating to Orange County, CA in 1995, Susan and Henry have become very active in the community. Susan is on the Board of the Orangewood Children's Foundation and was the founder of 44 Women for Children, an Orangewood auxiliary that supports teens emancipating from the foster care system. She serves on the Board of the Susan Samueli Center for Integrative Medicine at UC Irvine's College of Medicine, which she and Henry established in 2001. Susan and Henry also serve on the Board of the Samueli Institute, a non-profit scientific research organization they founded in 2001 focused on complementary and integrative medicine and the science of healing. In 2005 he was awarded an Honorary Doctor of Science degree from the Technion-Israel Institute of Technology and the Edward A. Dickson Alumnus of the Year from UCLA. In 2006 he received the IEEE Communications Society Distinguished Industry Leaders Award. In 2010 he received the UCLA Medal. MICHAEL SCHULMAN

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD, ANAHEIM ARENA MANAGEMENT, LLC
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, ANAHEIM DUCKS HOCKEY CLUB, LLC
MANAGING DIRECTOR, H&S VENTURES, LLC

Michael Schulman serves as Chairman of the Board of Anaheim Arena Management (AAM), Chief Executive Officer of Anaheim Ducks Hockey Club (ADHC), Chairman of the Board of the Anaheim Ducks Foundation and serves on the board of NHL Enterprises. He is also an Alternate Governor for the NHL Board of Governors. In addition, he is Managing Director of H&S Ventures, the entity that manages the Samueli Family Office, AAM and ADHC. Schulman reports directly to owners Dr. Henry Samueli and Susan Samueli, and is responsible for managing and long-term planning of their profit and nonprofit entities.

Schulman's role with Honda Center began long before he was appointed Chairman of AAM in December of 2003. Schulman was the lead negotiator on behalf of the Samueli family in the acquisition of the management agreement from the bankruptcy court and the City of Anaheim. He acts as liaison between the Samueli family and AAM management and supervises all financial, legal and charitable decisions of the arena. He also acts as liaison with the other partners of AAM and the City of Anaheim. In addition, Schulman oversees all long-term capital projects, including the 57 Freeway Marquee, two 360° LED rings, revamping of the video room and remodeling of the company offices and locker rooms.

Schulman's role at AAM includes overseeing all business and hockey operations. He was the lead negotiator on behalf of the Samueli family in working with Disney on the purchase of the Anaheim Ducks and also with the NHL in qualifying the Samueli family for the purchase of the team. Schulman was also involved with the family in changing the team name and logo, and forming the Anaheim Ducks Foundation. He is responsible for developing additional ice and inline rinks in the Orange County area and was instrumental in the purchase of several ice and inline rinks, including Irvine, Corona and Huntington inline rinks, and Westminster, Yorba Linda and Lakewood ice rinks. Schulman is the Chairman of THE RINKS Program and oversees its development, including the advancement of the Anaheim Ducks High School Hockey League and the California State Championship.

Schulman's role at H&S Ventures is multi-faceted. He is the Managing Director of the family office, which oversees all of the family's profit and nonprofit operations. H&S Ventures serves as the manager of AAM and ADHC as well as a number of other business entities in which the Samuelis are involved. He is also a current member of the boards of Telluride Ski and Golf Company and KDOC Television, and a founding member of the USC Sports Business Institute (SBI) Advisory Council.

Schulman also serves on many nonprofit boards. He has been a member of the University of California, Irvine Foundation Board since 1991 and is on the Stewardship Committee. He was one of the founding members and past chair of the UCI Planned Giving Leadership Council. Schulman serves on the boards of the Samueli Foundation, Samueli Institute, the Orange County Jewish Campus and Anaheim Ducks Foundation.

After earning his Bachelor of Arts in Economics from University of California, Berkeley, Schulman went on to the University of Santa Clara Law School. In addition, Schulman studied economics for one year at the University of Leeds in Leeds, England.

After law school, he was hired as a full-time law professor at the University of Southern California, after which he was a practicing attorney for a number of years and a partner with the law firm of McDermott, Will & Emery.

A native of California, Michael and his wife, Sherry, reside in Laguna Beach and have four children: Annie, Danielle, Bryant and Natasha.

BOB MURRAY

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER
ANAHEIM DUCKS HOCKEY CLUB, LLC

Bob Murray enters his 39th consecutive year in the National Hockey League, his sixth as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Anaheim Ducks. He was named to his current position on Nov. 12, 2008 after spending the previous three-plus seasons as the club's Senior Vice President of Hockey Operations.

Murray was a finalist for NHL General Manager of the Year in 2012-13. The Ducks finished the regular season with the third-best record in the NHL (30-12-6, second in the West). Anaheim finished with the best winning (points) percentage in club history (.688), besting the 2007 club (48-20-14, .671).

In addition to improving the NHL club, Murray has restocked the club's prospect pool. In February 2013 The Hockey News graded the Ducks as having the second-best group of prospects in the NHL. The Ducks are the only NHL team to have three players ranked in the magazine's "Top 50 Prospects" with John Gibson (#11), Hampus Lindholm (#12), and Jakob Silfverberg (#18).

Murray has made other critical moves to help the Ducks qualify for the playoffs in previous seasons. In 2011, after Jonas Hiller was unexpectedly stricken with vertigo in February, Murray acquired goaltenders Ray Emery (free agent) and Dan Ellis (trade). Both Emery (7-2-0) and Ellis (8-3-1) played extremely well down the stretch, leading the Ducks on a climb that took them from 11th place to a fourth-place finish in the Western Conference. After a series of mid-season roster moves, the 2008-09 Ducks made a late charge to qualify for the playoffs, going on to beat the Presidents' Trophy-winning San Jose Sharks in the Western Conference Quarterfinals. That made Anaheim the fifth team in the expansion era (1967-68) to upset the league's top regular season team in the first round. The Ducks fell to Detroit in a dramatic, seven-game series in the Conference Semifinals.

Prior to being named Executive Vice President and General Manager, Murray was the club's Senior Vice President of Hockey Operations for three-plus seasons. He was named to the post on July 14, 2005. Much of Murray's work behind the scenes led directly to many successful trades and other player transactions by Anaheim. During that three-year period, the Ducks won a Stanley Cup (2007), a Pacific Division title (2007), and qualified for the playoffs each season.

Murray's previous responsibilities as Senior Vice President of Hockey Operations included overseeing all aspects of player development and serving as General Manager of Anaheim's American Hockey League (AHL) affiliate (previously Portland and Iowa). Murray was the General Manager of the Portland Pirates from 2005-06 through 2007-08. The Pirates went to the Conference Finals twice (2006 & 2008), appearing in six playoff rounds. Between 2005 and 2008 (three seasons), Anaheim and Portland combined to win 10 and appear in 14 playoff rounds, both the most of any organization in hockey.

Prior to joining the Ducks, Murray worked as a Professional Scout with the Vancouver Canucks from 1999-05. Murray's scouting expertise helped to build teams that recorded 100+ point seasons two years in a row (2002-03 and 2003-04) and advanced to the Stanley Cup Playoffs four seasons in a row (2001-04). Before his stint in Vancouver, he served as a Scouting Consultant for Anaheim during the 1998-99 season.

Murray was a member of the Chicago Blackhawks organization for 25 years, serving as General Manager from 1997-99. He was named the sixth General Manager in team history on July 3, 1997. He was promoted to the post after serving as Assistant General Manager under Bob Pulford for two seasons. Before joining upper-management, Murray was named the Director of Player Personnel in 1991 and was largely responsible for the club's NHL Entry Draft selections over eight seasons.

Drafted by the Blackhawks in 1974, Murray spent his entire 1,008-game, 15-year career in a Chicago uniform. He became just the fourth player in Blackhawks history to reach the 1,000-game plateau in 1989-90. In addition, he became the first defenseman in club history to appear in 100 postseason contests, reaching the mark during the 1990 Stanley Cup Playoffs. In all, Murray scored 132-382=514 points and currently ranks second in all-time points among Blackhawks defensemen (13th overall in club history). He was named to both the 1981 and 1983 NHL All-Star Games. Murray retired at the conclusion of the 1989-90 season. Known for his work ethic, intelligence and determination as a player, Murray remained with the organization as a Professional Scout following his retirement in 1990.

Bob and his wife, Betsy, have four children: Kevin, Andrew, Amanda, and Katie; and three granddaughters: Mikayla, Aisley and Lily.

TIM RYAN

PRESIDENT/CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, ANAHEIM ARENA MANAGEMENT, LLC
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER, ANAHEIM DUCKS HOCKEY CLUB, LLC

Tim Ryan enters his ninth season as Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer for the Anaheim Ducks. In his current role, Ryan has led the club to record levels of success in business operations while leading aggressive community and fan development programs aimed at improved education, health and well-being, and recreation in the Southern California market.

Ryan is now in his 21st year with Honda Center and 35th in arena management and event creation. In addition to his duties with the NHL club, he serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of Anaheim Arena Management, LLC (AAM), the management company of Honda Center. In his role, Ryan oversees one of the premier entertainment and sports venues in the world. In September 2012, Venues Today Magazine ranked Honda Center among the top 10 arenas in the world for live entertainment over the past decade, with a ranking of sixth overall in the country over that time. The facility is also a seven-time finalist for "Venue of the Year" as selected by Pollstar Magazine editors.

Ryan has also led efforts to assure Honda Center is maintained and remains one of the world's top-of-the-line entertainment venues. This fall, the venue officially opened The Grand Terrace, a unique project that includes a 15,000-square-foot indoor/outdoor entertainment space, a new Wolfgang Puck restaurant and a team store more than triple the size of the previous location. While The Grand Terrace project represents the largest renovation in Honda Center history, Ryan also focuses on progressive improvements to keep the venue state-of-the-art, including the recent launch of Cisco StadiumVision throughout each level of the facility, creating a truly immersive entertainment environment.

Through strategic planning, creative business development and event production, Ryan ensures the arena is also extremely active with a variety of first-class events. Under his guidance, the venue has recently hosted some of the world's top names in live entertainment. In early 2013, Honda Center was one of only 12 venues in North America to host the Rolling Stones. This fall, the venue has a lineup that includes acts such as Bon Jovi, Justin Timberlake and Michael Bublé. Ryan also played a key role in negotiations to bring a professional arena football team to Honda Center (the LA KISS), owned by legendary rockers Paul Stanley and Gene Simmons, original members of the band KISS.

Ryan recently partnered with ESPN to develop the John Wooden Legacy college basketball tournament, which will see Honda Center serve as host for Championship Sunday this December. The venue will also host the annual Big West Basketball Tournament again in March, followed by the 2014 Men's NCAA West Regional. Over the years, Honda Center has also served as host to the 2003 World Gymnastics Championships, 2005 World Badminton Championships, five previous NCAA men's basketball tournament events and the first Frozen Four west of the Rocky Mountains (in 1999). Since 1993, more than 32.5 million people have been entertained at Honda Center, enjoying more than 3,300 events.

His duties include overseeing all aspects of player development, having an expertise on the new Collective Bargaining Agreement and its relationship to the salary cap in the NHL, contract and arbitration negotiation, player evaluation and scouting.

McNab's impact on the Ducks is significant. He has been part of Anaheim's run to two Stanley Cup Finals (2003 & 2007), including a championship in 2007. The club advanced to the Conference Finals in 2006 and the Conference Semifinals in 2009. In recent years, McNab has scouted and signed numerous collegiate free agents who have made major contributions to the success of the club.

Prior to being named as the Ducks' Assistant General Manager in December of 1995, the 57-year-old McNab was the club's first Director of Player Personnel and was largely responsible for the team's selections in the 1994-96 NHL Entry and Supplemental Drafts. Each season, Ahlers is a significant contributor to the team's award-winning Ducks S.C.O.R.E. program, an educational initiative that impacts over 25,000 elementary school students. He teaches the students the value of teamwork in sports, in school and in life. Using team building exercises that relate to hockey, this interactive presentation demonstrates the importance to work effectively with others to achieve success in all endeavors. Ahlers can also be seen and heard at many of the Ducks community relations events, where he works as host and emcee.

Prior to joining the Ducks, Ahlers was with the Tampa Bay Lightning organization. While in Tampa Bay, Ahlers served as radio play-by-play voice from 1999-02. A 25-year broadcast veteran with over 1,700 games behind the microphone, he also worked as host of the Lightning's television pre-game show and Lightning Weekly, a magazine format program aired on Florida's Sunshine Television Network.

Prior to his stint with Tampa Bay, Ahlers spent five seasons as the television and radio voice of the International Hockey League's (IHL) Detroit Vipers. During that time, he also worked as broadcaster of the IHL Game of Week and Turner Cup Finals for Fox Sports Net. While with the Vipers he received numerous awards, including the IHL Broadcaster of the Year in 1995 and Emmys for Best Sports Broadcasts in 1995, 1998 and most recently in 2003 for Best Live Sports Broadcast during Game 4 against Detroit in the first round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

The official team colors and logo were unveiled on June 7, 1993.

HOW IT ALL BEGAN

On October 2, 1992, Walt Disney Pictures released the hit movie "The Mighty Ducks" and created a new wave of excitement among the nation's youth and ice hockey. Starring Emilio Estevez and a band of kids who learn to play and win as a team, "The Mighty Ducks" grossed $51 million at the box office and served as the inspiration for the name of the Walt Disney Company's NHL club.

The original official team colors and logo were unveiled on June 7, 1993, and Mighty Ducks merchandise was immediately propelled into one of the top sellers in all of professional sports.

Purple, jade, silver and white were chosen as the team's colors while an attractive crest featuring a duck head-shaped hockey mask was chosen to give the club its own unique identity. As a testament to the logos popularity, the Ducks original jersey was named the "most fashionable" uniform in all of sports at the inaugural ESPY awards in 1997.

THIRD JERSEYS

The Ducks have appeared in four third jerseys (each pictured), the most recent debuting in 2010-11. Anaheim's first alternate sweater was a cartoon Duck breaking through a sheet of ice. The club moved to a more classic approach with its next two sweaters, using black with dark plum, silver and white accenting as its color palate for the alternate jersey worn during the 2003-04 and 2005-06 seasons.

The newest third jersey is black, with orange sleeves and side panels. The "D" foot has been placed prominently on the chest. The shoulder patch integrates the original Mighty Ducks logo into a new oval mark, linking the team's past and present.

A NEW LOOK UNVEILED

In the spring of 2005, Henry and Susan Samueli entered into an agreement with the Walt Disney Company to purchase the Ducks franchise. In the Samueli's first year of ownership, the Ducks set then-franchise records for overall wins (43) and standings points (98). Entering the 2006 Playoffs as the Western Conference's sixth seed, the Ducks upset the third-seeded Calgary Flames in a thrilling seven-game series and went on to sweep the Colorado Avalanche before losing to the Edmonton Oilers in the Western Conference Finals.

On June 22, 2006, a new era began for the franchise as the team became officially known as the Anaheim Ducks. In addition, a new logo and color scheme was unveiled. The new look and identity of the Ducks were a collaborative effort, mixing opinions of fans as well as Ducks players, ownership and management. All parties involved unanimously decided to go beyond simply altering the original concept of an aggressive duck character.

In shaping the new design, the focus was sharpened to create an overall image that expressed excitement, speed and a competitive edge. In addition, a classic color palette of black and metallic gold was developed, with an accent of orange as a metaphorical link to the team's Orange County home.

The result is a strong, typographic mark anchored by a stylized "D" that echoes the image of a duck's foot or footprint. The custom typography has a powerful forward momentum and is made up of metallic gold letters with orange drop-shadows and a black holding shape. The new uniforms are an evolution of the earlier sweater design but with gold, white and orange sweeping stripes influenced by the curves of the "D" in the Ducks logo.

Set with a new look for the 2006-07 season, the Ducks made history and won the Stanley Cup. The club also won its first-ever Pacific Division title, spending the final 72 games and 163 calendar days atop the division. Anaheim once again broke club records in wins (48) and standings points (110). The Ducks defeated Minnesota (4-1), Vancouver (4-1), Detroit (4-2) and Ottawa (4-1), becoming the first West Coast team to win the Stanley Cup since the 1925 Victoria Cougars and the first U.S. team on the West Coast to win it since the 1917 Seattle Metropolitans.

A TWIST ON THE NEW

In 2007-08, the National Hockey League and Reebok teamed to create the Rbk EDGE Uniform System to meet the performance demands of today's NHL player. The result of more than two years of research and testing, the system features technologically advanced materials and fabrics that are more breathable, more water-resistant, more comfortable and more compatible with equipment.

The Rbk EDGE Uniform System is worn by all 30 NHL teams in their respective colors and designs. The introduction of this system marked the first time in the history of North American professional sports that a uniform innovation had been implemented League-wide.

The program is a free standards-based curriculum, with resources and incentives for teachers and students. Through the establishment of two major initiatives, In-Class Education and Physical Education, Ducks S.C.O.R.E. uses hockey to teach educational themes, reinforce the importance of positive character building and reward youth for their dedication pursuing academic excellence.

The Anaheim Ducks Foundation also supports the Learn to Play Program, which offers first-time hockey players the chance to get on the rink in full hockey equipment for free. Players receive instruction on the basics of hockey as well as learn how to skate properly. Participants in the Anaheim Ducks Learn to Play Program are provided with an equipment bag, helmet, shin guards, hockey pants, elbow pads, shoulder pads, gloves and a jersey to use for the four-week session in order to be fully protected on the rink.

TEAM HISTORY

Hockey has a rich history in Hampton Roads, combining a tradition of winning and developing future NHL players while providing top-notch entertainment to millions of fans. This tradition dates back to the 1970s with several minor league teams. However, it was not until 1989 that hockey took permanent root in the area.

The Hampton Roads Admirals began play during the 1989-90 season in the East Coast Hockey League. From 1989-00, the Admirals won three league championships while averaging nearly 7,000 fans per game. In 2000, Norfolk graduated to the American Hockey League and continued the winning tradition of its ECHL predecessor. Admirals squads have advanced to the playoffs in 20 of 23 seasons since 1989-90, including the 2012 Calder Cup – the team's first AHL championship.

The Admirals play at venerable Norfolk Scope Arena – the largest reinforced concrete dome in the world. The arena was designed in part by famed Italian architect Pier Luigi Nervi, and dominates a 17-acre plaza in the center of downtown Norfolk. Scope, which celebrated its 40th anniversary in 2011, is home to the Admirals and also hosts other events such as ice shows, concerts, conventions and the circus. Recent years have seen the City of Norfolk implement several upgrades to Scope – including improved lighting, sound systems, seating and a state-of-the-art, multi-million dollar LED videoboard system. Nearly five million fans have watched hundreds of the best prospects in hockey develop at Norfolk Scope Arena. More than 150 players who have passed through Norfolk have played in the National Hockey League.

On June 21, 2012, the Anaheim Ducks and Admirals announced a multi-year affiliation agreement beginning in 2012-13. As part of the announcement, the Admirals named Trent Yawney as head coach and Marty Wilford as assistant coach. The Admirals went 37-34-5 in 2012-13, including a 19-11-2 record in their last 32 games for the second-most wins and third-most points in the AHL Eastern Conference. Sami Vatanen finished the season named a 2012-13 AHL First-Team All Star and was also named the 2012-13 AHL All-Rookie team. Among AHL leaders, Vatanen ranked tied for fourth in scoring by defensemen and tied for 10th in rookie scoring. Patrick Maroon was named the 2012-13 Norfolk Admirals Player of the Year, ranking tied for 13th among AHL leaders in goals scored (26), tied for seventh in PPG (12) and tied for fourth in OT goals (2).

BOB FERGUSON

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Bob Ferguson enters his second season as Assistant General Manager of the Norfolk Admirals. Ferguson has logged more than 30 years experience in a coaching or management capacity at the minor league and junior levels, including the last five seasons with the Ducks organization. He spent the 2010-11 and 2011-12 seasons as Assistant General Manager of the Syracuse Crunch, Anaheim's previous affiliate in the American Hockey League. In 2009-10, he served as a scout for Anaheim, responsible for amateur and college scouting along with other special assignments in hockey operations. The season prior, Ferguson held the post of Assistant General Manager for the Iowa Chops, Anaheim's 2008-09 AHL affiliate.

Prior to joining the Ducks, Ferguson spent nine years as a head coach in the professional ranks with the Indianapolis Ice of the IHL, as well as the Florida Everblades and Augusta Lynx of the ECHL. In his nine seasons as a professional coach, Ferguson's teams never missed the playoffs.

A native of Kingston, Ontario, Ferguson is a three-time USA Hockey National Champion (Gold Cup), a five-time United States Hockey League (USHL) Coach of the Year, a five-time USHL General Manager of the Year and two-time ECHL Coach of the Year. Before reaching the IHL, Ferguson coached in the USHL for 17 seasons with the Sioux City Musketeers and Des Moines Buccaneers. With 517 career USHL coaching wins, he ranks third all-time in league history. During his USHL tenure, he led Sioux City (2) and Des Moines (3) to multiple Clark Cup championships. Ferguson and his wife, Lisa, have two children: Brett and Kaylee. The family resides in Des Moines, IA.

Yawney joined the Ducks' 2011-12 AHL affiliate in Syracuse as Associate Head Coach on Jan. 10, 2012 and helped guide the team to a 2012 Calder Cup Playoff appearance. It marked his second AHL coaching assignment after originally guiding Norfolk to the Calder Cup Playoffs in each of the team's first five AHL seasons (2000-05) under the Chicago Blackhawks. Yawney led Norfolk to a 189-144-42-25 record in those first five seasons and back-to-back South Division titles in 2001-02 and 2002-03. He was named "Minor Pro Coach of the Year" by The Hockey News following the 2003-04 campaign.

A native of Hudson Bay, Saskatchewan, Yawney previously served two stints with the Ducks as a professional scout in 2007-08 and 2011-12. He also spent three seasons as an assistant coach with the San Jose Sharks from 2008-11. Prior to his first stint with the Ducks, Yawney spent 14 seasons with the Chicago Blackhawks organization, most recently as the club's 35th head coach in franchise history from 2005-06.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

A RECORD-BREAKING SEASON

The Anaheim Ducks won their second Pacific Division title with a 30-12-6 record for 66 points, marking their best winning percentage in club history (.688 over 2007's .671)…the 2012-13 Ducks also had the best points percentage in club history on the road with a 14-5-5 (.688) mark, also ahead of the 2007 team (.598)…the Ducks finished second in the Western Conference and third overall in the NHL, behind only Chicago and Pittsburgh…the club's third-place finish in the overall league standings was the highest in club history.

COMEBACKS

The Ducks rallied from deficits 15 times to win a game, including a 12-10-2 record when opponents scored first…the Ducks, Pittsburgh (11-6-0) and Chicago (10-5-4) were the first NHL teams since 2009-10 to have a record over .500 in such situations…the last team prior to 2012-13 was Bruce Boudreau's Washington Capitals (16-8-6 in 2009-10)…the Ducks lost only two games in regulation when scoring the first goal (18-2-4).

TEAM EFFORT

The Ducks ranked in the top 10 in goals-per game (eighth with 2.79) and goals-against per game (tied for ninth with 2.40)…the team's 2.40 goals-against average ranked as third-best in club history… Anaheim's 5-on-5 goals for/against ratio (1.28) ranked tied for fourth in the NHL...the club co-led the Western Conference (with Vancouver) and was tied for fourth in the NHL (along with NY Rangers) with six players scoring 10 goals-or-more (Getzlaf, Perry, Cogliano, Selanne, Ryan, Palmieri)...the Ducks were also tied for third in the NHL (Pittsburgh and St. Louis had 13 players) with 12 players scoring five goals-or-more (Beauchemin, Perry, Getzlaf, Winnik, Selanne, Koivu, Ryan, Bonino, Palmieri, Cogliano, Beleskey, Souray).

HOME SWEET HOME

Anaheim won 13 consecutive games at Honda Center from Jan. 26-Mar. 20, the longest home streak in franchise history...the consecutive wins matched the NHL's second-longest home win streak since 2009-10 (also Washington at 13 games in 2010-11 under Bruce Boudreau...Detroit had an NHL-record 23-game streak in 2011-12)...Ryan Getzlaf's 9-21=30 points earned at home ranked tied for third in the NHL.

ROAD WARRIORS

Anaheim completed its 2012-13 road schedule with a 14-5-5 record (33 points), the club's best road win percentage in club history (.688)...the Ducks had three players in the top 10 in plus/minus on the road, including Andrew Cogliano (+16, tied for third), Sheldon Souray (+13, tied for seventh) and Daniel Winnik (+12, tied for ninth)…

Anaheim ranked third in the NHL in points earned on the road (Chicago, 38 and Pittsburgh, 36).

HERE TO STAY

On Mar. 8 and Mar. 18, Ryan Getzlaf and Corey Perry signed respective eight-year contract extensions through the 2020-21 season...Getzlaf led Anaheim in points, goals and assists (15-34=49), while ranking tied for 10th among NHL leaders in scoring and tied for eighth in assists...Getzlaf had a career-high 12-game scoring streak at Honda Center from Feb. 1-Mar. 20, scoring 7-15=22 points (+12)...Perry ranked second among team leaders with 36 points, led in PPG (5) and co-led in goals (15) and GWG (5)...his five GWG ranked tied for sixth in the NHL.

IMPRESSIVE DEBUT

Viktor Fasth went 15-5-2 in 24 games, ranking tied for 12th in the NHL in GAA (2.18), 13th in SV% (.921), and tied for sixth in shutouts (4)…he became the third NHL goaltender all-time to win his first eight-or-more career decisions, joining Ray Emery of Ottawa (NHL record 9-0-0 from 2003-05, 12 games) and Bob Froese of Philadelphia (8-0-0 in 1983)...Fasth was the first goalie to start a season 8-0-0 since Tim Thomas of Boston in 2010...the eight-game winning streak was the longest in the NHL since a nine-game streak by Marc-Andre Fleury of Pittsburgh from Feb. 21-Mar. 17, 2012…in team history, Fasth became the first goaltender to win his first eight decisions as a Duck (previous mark held by Ray Emery in 2010-11, six consecutive wins)...he also was the first goaltender to win his first four NHL appearances since Nolan Schaefer (with San Jose) won his first five games from Oct. 26-Nov. 4, 2005.

NUMBER 8

Teemu Selanne recorded two four-point games in 2012-13, just the third and fourth time an NHL player 42 years or older accomplished the feat...Selanne scored 1-3=4 points on Feb. 9 at St. Louis (at 42 years, 326 days) and 2-2=4 points on Jan. 19 at Vancouver, joining Gordie Howe (42 years, 326 days) with 1-3=4 points for Detroit on Feb. 20, 1971 vs. Buffalo, and Tim Horton (42 years, 3 days) with 0-4=4 points for Pittsburgh on Jan. 15, 1972 vs. Philadelphia…Selanne finished 2012-13 with 675-755=1,430 points, 251 PPG and 107 GWG in 1,387 career NHL games (WPG, ANA, SJ & COL)...appearing in his 900th game as a Duck on Apr. 21 at Edmonton, Selanne ranked 11th in all-time goals, tied for 40th in all-time assists, 15th in points, third in PPG and sixth in all-time GWG at the conclusion of the regular season...on Mar. 25 vs. San Jose, Selanne played his 1,373rd game to surpass Teppo Numminen for the most games played by a Finnish-born player in NHL history…he opened the 2012-13 season at 42 years, 6 months and 16 days as the oldest active player in the NHL and the oldest to ever compete in a Ducks uniform.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE 2010-11 REGULAR SEASON

The Ducks finished the regular season with a record of 47-30-5 for 99 points, ranking second in the Pacific Division and fourth in the Western Conference...the club's 47 wins were tied for the second-most in franchise history (48 in 2006-07 and 47 in 2007-08).

ANOTHER STRONG FINISH

With 20 games left, the Ducks were 32-25-5 with 69 points and ranked 11th in the Western Conference...the Ducks went 15-5-0 over the last 20 games, climbing to fourth in the West…during that stretch, Corey Perry led the NHL in goals and points (19-12=31 with a +12)…the Ducks also won their last two games, 10 of their last 13 (10-3-0), and went 29-13-1 over the last 43 contests.

PERRY WINS THE HART

Corey Perry won the 2010-11 Hart Memorial Trophy as "the player adjudged to be the most valuable to his team"…Perry was the first player from a Southern California team to win the Hart Trophy since Hall-of-Famer Wayne Gretzky earned the honor with Los Angeles in 1989…Perry was also just the third player from a California team to win the Hart, joining Gretzky and San Jose's Joe Thornton (2006)…his 50 goals also won him the Maurice "Rocket" Richard Trophy as the league's top goal scorer…he tied for the league lead in GWG (11, also Ovechkin), finished third in points (98), and tied for fifth in PPG (14) and SHG (4)

MORE PERRY

Perry's 50 goals were the most by a Ducks player since Teemu Selanne scored 52 during the 1997-98 season…he became the third player in franchise history to reach the 50-goal mark and the first in the Western Conference to score 50-or-more since Calgary's Jarome Iginla in 2007-08 (50)…Perry established numerous franchise records in 2010-11, including game-winning goals, third-period goals, and shorthanded goals.

BETTER WITH AGE

Teemu Selanne (40 years old in 2010-11) recorded 31-49=80 points in 73 games…25 of Selanne's 31 goals came in a tied game or a one-goal contest...he was one of 15 NHL players to average over one point-per-game (eighth with 1.10)…the second-oldest player on that list was Tampa Bay's Martin St. Louis (35 yrs.) who averaged 1.21 points-per-game...Selanne ranked third in the NHL with 16 PPG and tied for eighth in overall scoring…only two players in NHL history age 40+ have recorded more points: (Gordie Howe (DET), 1968-98, 103 pts., 40 yrs, 276 days; Johnny Bucyk (BOS), 1975-76, 83 pts., 40 yrs, 234 days...on Mar. 28 vs. Colorado, he became the first player in history age 40+ to record three goals and five points (3-2=5) in a single game and the fourth-oldest player in NHL history to record a 3+ goal game (also Howe, Bucyk & Lidstrom).

VISNOVSKY LEADS THE PACK

Lubomir Visnovsky led NHL defensemen in scoring (68), assists (50) and points-per-game (.84), and ranked second in goals (18).

HILLER SHINES BEFORE SEASON CUT SHORT

Jonas Hiller went 26-16-5 with five shutouts, a 2.56 GAA and .924 SV% before having his season cut short due to vertigo symptoms...he made only three appearances following the All-Star break, missing a total of 27 games during the second half of the season…Hiller finished tied for fifth among NHL goaltenders in SV% (.924)…he was named to the NHL 2010-11 All-Star team, the lone goaltender to represent the Western Conference…he was the second Swiss-born player to appear in an NHL All-Star Game (also Mark Streit in 2009).

THE SEASON:

The Ducks finished the season with a 39-32-11 record for 89 points (11th in Western Conference)…the club went 23-14-4 for 50 points in the second half of the season (41 games), which equaled the eighth-best record in the league…Anaheim also finished with points in eight of the last nine games (5-1-3) and went 9-3-3 over the last 15 contests…the Ducks concluded the 2009-10 season with a 6-0-2 record in the last eight games at Honda Center and were 17-3-3 in the last 23 contests at home.

BY THE NUMBERS:

Right wing Corey Perry led the club in scoring with a career-high 27-49=76 points and was the only player to appear in all 82 regular season games for Anaheim…center Ryan Getzlaf led the team in assists (50) despite missing 16 games due to injury…defenseman Scott Niedermayer, who ranked tied for 11th in league defensemen scoring, led all Anaheim players in ice time (26:30) and paced all team blueliners in assists and points (10-38=48)…right wing Bobby Ryan had a career-high 35 goals in 81 games, leading the team in goals and ranking second in the NHL (behind only New Jersey's Zach Parise) among U.S.-born players…right wing Teemu Selanne finished the season ranked tied for third in the NHL in power play goals (14) and tied for eighth in goals-per game (.50), his highest mark since 2006-07 (.59)…with 27 goals on the year (27-21=48), 2009-10 marked Selanne's 14th season with 25 goals or more…Selanne had six goals in his last five games (6-2=8), 8-9=17 points in his last 13 and 9-12=21 points in his final 18 contests…center Saku Koivu earned 4-7=11 points with a +6 rating in his last five games...he also had 7-11=18 points in his last 13 and 8-12=20 in 19...Koivu, who scored the game-tying goal in two of his last three games (and the shootout winner on Apr. 3 at Los Angeles), ranked tied for 10th in the NHL in game-winning goals (6)…Koivu also eclipsed the 50-point mark for seventh consecutive season in 2009-10 (19-33=52)…defenseman Lubomir Visnovsky ranked tied for fourth in goals among NHL defensemen (with San Jose's Dan Boyle)…his five goals after his acquisition by Anaheim on Mar. 3 (did not play until Mar. 6) co-led all NHL defensemen (with Washington's Mike Green and Los Angeles' Drew Doughty).

TAKING THE REINS:

The Ducks were 23-13-4 in their last 40 games dating back to Jan. 5, which equaled the eighth-best record in the NHL…that stretch began with Jonas Hiller starting 31 of the final 40 games, including 19 straight from Jan. 5-Mar. 24…prior to that, Hiller started 26 of the first 42 games of the season, alternating starts with J.S. Giguere (the Ducks were 16-19-7 at that point of the season)…Hiller himself was 18-11-1 (2.58 GAA, .923 SV%) in his last 32 games from Jan. 5 to the end of the season.

After reaching the historic 600-goal plateau on Mar. 21 vs. Colorado and matching childhood idol and longtime friend Jari Kurri with 601 on Mar. 31 at Colorado, right wing Teemu Selanne scored two goals on Apr. 2 vs. Vancouver to grab sole possession of 17th place in all-time goals with his 602nd and 603rd goals…finishing the season with 606 career goals, Selanne became one of only 18 players in NHL history to score 600 goals and one of only three Europeans, following Jaromir Jagr (CZE) and Kurri (FIN).

RECORD STREAK:

The Ducks had a franchise-record 11-game home winning streak from Dec. 8-Feb. 10…the 11-game winning streak at Honda Center was the second-longest in the NHL in 2009-10, behind only Washington's 14-game streak at Verizon Center.

2010 OLYMPICS:

Anaheim Ducks players combined for seven medals at the 2010 Olympic Winter Games, the most in the NHL (San Jose was second with five)…the seven medals also tied the most ever by an NHL team…the only other NHL teams to have as many as seven medal winners were the 1998 Pittsburgh Penguins and the 2002 Detroit Red Wings…Anaheim Ducks players combined for three gold (Scott Niedermayer, Ryan Getzlaf, Corey Perry for Canada), two silver (Bobby Ryan, Ryan Whitney for USA), and two bronze medals (Saku Koivu and Teemu Selanne for Finland) in Vancouver.

THE STANDINGS CLIMB:

After 69 games, the Ducks were 32-31-6, 12th in the Western Conference standings (13th by winning percentage)...Anaheim rallied to make the playoffs by posting the best record in the NHL (by points and winning percentage) over the last 13 games, going 10-2-1 (21 points, .808 win%)…the Ducks joined only the 1996-97 Ottawa Senators and 2006-07 New York Rangers as teams to rally from as low as 12th place to make the playoffs with 13 games-or-less remaining in the season...the 1996-97 Senators were 12th through 69 games and finished seventh, while the 2006-07 Rangers were 12th through 72 games and finished sixth.

STRONG FINISH:

The Ducks finished the 2008-09 regular season winning five of the last seven games (5-1-1), 10 of 13 games (10-2-1) and were 11-3-1 in the last 15 overall...the Ducks scored at least one power play goal in eight of the last nine games (13-for-35, 37.1%) and went 20-for-48 (41.7%) over the final 13...in the last five contests, the Ducks were 9-for-16 on the power play for a 56.3% success rate...in addition, the club recorded 55 goals over the last 13 games (4.2 per game), scoring at least five goals in five of those contests.

ROAD SUCCESS:

Anaheim finished the 2008-09 regular season by recording points in a team-record nine consecutive road games (7-0-2; 16 points), besting the previous mark of eight games set earlier in the year (7-0-1; Oct. 21-Nov. 30)…the Ducks won six straight road games before losing in a shootout in the season finale on Apr. 11 at Phoenix, falling just one win shy of tying a club-record seven-game road winning streak from Nov. 28-Dec. 13, 2006…with a 22-15-4 road record, the Ducks tied a franchise record for most road wins in a single season (22-14-5, 2006-07).

LEADING THE WAY:

Center Ryan Getzlaf concluded the 2008-09 campaign ranked tied for third among NHL leaders in assists, tied for sixth in scoring (25-66=91) and tied for fourth in power play assists (28)…in addition to leading the club in assists and scoring, Getzlaf broke the Ducks single-season assist record (previously Kariya, 62) on his third helper of the night as part of a four-assist effort on Apr. 4 at San Jose...with two assists (0-2=2) on Apr. 2 at Vancouver, he set a single-season career high in assists (60), one game after establishing a personal best for points in a season on Mar. 31 at Edmonton (83).

HILLER STRONG IN NET:

Goaltender Jonas Hiller concluded the regular season ranked tied for seventh among NHL goaltenders in GAA (2.39) and tied for sixth in SV% (.919)...over his last 12 games, Hiller went 8-2-0 with a 2.44 GAA and .919 SV%, stopping 319-of-347 shots…prior to a 3-2 loss to San Jose on Apr. 5 at Honda Center, Hiller won seven consecutive decisions to tie Guy Hebert for the longest winning streak in franchise history (Hebert won seven straight games from Feb. 25-Mar. 22, 1995).

THE CAPTAIN LEADS THE WAY, AGAIN:

Scott Niedermayer concluded the regular season ranked second among all defensemen in scoring starting Jan. 1 (9-31=40, Mike Green of WSH had 23-27=50 points)…for the season, he ranked tied for third in the NHL in scoring and assists among defensemen...Niedermayer became Anaheim's all-time goal scorer among defensemen by surpassing Oleg Tverdovsky with his 46th goal as a Duck on Mar. 8 vs. Minnesota…Niedermayer recorded his third three-point night of the season (1-2=3) on Mar. 31 at EDM, tying a single-game career high.

MOVING ON UP:

Right wing Teemu Selanne scored his 1,200th career NHL point with his overtime goal on Mar. 18 vs. Nashville...Selanne became the 45th player in NHL history to reach the milestone and only the sixth player born outside North America to reach the mark, joining Jaromir Jagr, Stan Mikita, Jari Kurri, Mats Sundin and Paul Stastny…he became the franchise's all-time games played leader with his 617th game as a Duck on Jan. 31 at Colorado...with his appearance that afternoon at Pepsi Center, Selanne surpassed former teammate Steve Rucchin for sole possession of first in all-time Ducks appearances.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE SEASON:

The Ducks completed the 2007-08 regular season with a mark of 47-27-8 record for 102 points, finishing second in the Pacific Division and fourth in the Western Conference…Anaheim eclipsed the 100-point mark for the second consecutive year, while setting new season club records for the fewest goals allowed (184) and most home wins (28)…Anaheim finished the year winning eight of its last 10 (8-2-0) and 15 of the last 20 games (15-4-1)…at Honda Center, the club went 12-1-0 in the last 13 games and 19-3-1 over the final 23 home contests…the club clinched a playoff berth for the third consecutive year and sixth time in franchise history on Mar. 26 vs. Los Angeles in a 2-1 shootout triumph.

DUCKS SELL OUT THE SEASON:

The Ducks' sellout vs. Phoenix on Apr. 6 (17,269) marked the club's 40th in 40 games at Honda Center in 2007-08, a complete sellout for the regular season…it was just the second time a local NHL team (Southern California market) had sold out a full (non-lockout) regular season…the 1991-92 Los Angeles Kings were the only other such team to do so at the 16,005-seat Forum…the Ducks set franchise attendance records last season for sellouts (40), average attendance (17,195) and percent capacity (100.12%)…the Ducks broke the team record for consecutive regular season sellouts on Feb. 22 against the St. Louis Blues when they surpassed the previous record of 51 straight regular season sellouts set from Dec. 22, 1993-Oct. 20, 1995...the Ducks finished the regular season with a sellout streak of 74 games, the third-longest active regular season sellout streak among U.S.-based NHL teams (behind only Minnesota and the NY Rangers).

WINNING AT HONDA CENTER:

The Ducks finished 28-9-4 at Honda Center in 2007-08, establishing a new franchise record for home wins in the regular season...the previous team record of 26 home wins was established during the 2005-06 season (26-10-5) and matched in the 2006-07 campaign (26-6-9)…the Ducks won a franchise-record 10 consecutive games at Honda Center from Feb. 17-Mar. 26, marking the longest home winning streak in the NHL in 2007-08.

THE TOP 10 LIST:

J.S. Giguere was one of only three goaltenders in the NHL in 2007-08 to rank among the top 10 in wins, goals-against average and save percentage...Giguere ranked second in GAA (2.12), third in SV% (.922) and tied for seventh in wins (35)...the only other two goaltenders who ranked among the top 10 in all three categories were New Jersey's Martin Brodeur and Minnesota's Niklas Backstrom.

HILLER SHINES:

Ducks goaltender Jonas Hiller closed the regular season on a strong note… from Mar. 1 through the end of the regular season, Hiller ranked second in the NHL with a .952 SV% (stopping 217-of-228 shots) and 1.55 GAA (11 GA/426 MIN) among goaltenders that played in at least five games (Hiller was 4-3-0 in those games).

WINNING WAYS:

Randy Carlyle (138-74-34) became Anaheim's winningest head coach in franchise history with a 2-1 victory over the New Jersey Devils on Feb. 8 at Prudential Center...Carlyle surpassed Ron Wilson's club record of 120 wins as a Ducks head coach with win No. 121 in his 223rd game behind the bench with Anaheim.

LEADERS BY ADDITION:

The Ducks went 20-5-1 after the return of right wing Teemu Selanne on Feb. 5 against the New York Islanders at Nassau Coliseum...the Ducks also had similar success when they welcomed the return of defenseman Scott Niedermayer and arrival of center Doug Weight...the Ducks owned the best winning percentage in the NHL after Selanne's return on Feb. 5 (.788) and the best winning percentage following Niedermayer's return on Dec. 16 (.708)...below is a closer look:

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

PLAYOFF BOUND

The Ducks finished the regular season with a record of 43-27-12, good for 98 standings points and a sixth place finish in the Western Conference…the club clinched a playoff spot on Apr. 10 @ VAN, the fourth post-season berth in club history.

A RECORD-BREAKING SEASON

The Ducks set club-records in wins (43) and points (98), eclipsing the previous marks of 40 and 95, respectively, set in 2002-2003…Anaheim's 26 wins at HOME (26-10-5) also set a club-record, breaking the record of 23 in 1996-97 (23-12-6)…the Ducks also set club-records for goals scored with 251 (not including team goals awarded in shootouts) and power play goals with 87…all of these marks were broken again the next season (2006-2007).

STEADY CLIMB

On Jan. 13, the Ducks were 10th in the Western Conference (19-16-7, 45 points) and eight points out of the last playoff spot (occupied at the time by Colorado)...from that point on, Anaheim had a record of 24-11-5 for 53 points…the Ducks became just the fourth NHL team to qualify for the playoffs when trailing the 8th place position by 8 points-or-more anytime after Jan. 1…the first three teams to do so were the NY Islanders (1993-94 – finished 7th) , Ottawa Senators (1996-97 – finished 7th) & Vancouver Canucks (2001-2002 – finished 8th)…the San Jose Sharks followed suit by becoming the fifth such team to accomplish the feat…the NHL standings switched to the current format in 1992-93.

ANOTHER GREAT SEASON

Ducks Captain Scott Niedermayer established then career highs in points, assists and games played with 13-50=63 points in 82 games in 2005-2006...his assist and point totals were new franchise records for a defenseman (records he broke again the following season)...Niedermayer finished the season ranked 6th in the NHL in points and T-4th in assists by a defenseman...in his Norris Trophy winning season of 2003-04, Niedermayer scored 14-40=54 points in 81 games...in January, he was named to Canada's Olympic Team but elected not to play so he could have arthroscopic knee surgery during the Olympic Break...after the Olympic Break, he scored 4-17=21 points in 25 games in leading the Ducks to a 16-8-1 record...he was one of four Ducks' players to play in every game, marking the first time in his career he played all 82 games.

FLASHY FINN

Ducks right wing Teemu Selanne scored 40-50=90 points in 80 games with a +28 rating…he led the Ducks in goals, points, plus/minus, power play goals (18) and shooting percentage (15.0%)…after leading Finland to the Silver Medal at the 2006 Winter Olympics (was named best forward in the tournament), Selanne had 14-22=36 points with a +8 rating in his last 25 games (only Thornton and Cheechoo of SJ had more points)…his 40 goals are the most he scored in one season since 1998-1999, when he scored 47...he finished the season ranked T-13th in the NHL in points, T-10th in goals.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

DUCKS COMPLETE BEST SEASON IN TEAM HISTORY:

The Mighty Ducks finished the 2002-2003 season with a record of 40-27-9-6 for 95 points, good for 2nd in the Pacific Division and 7th in the Western Conference (tied in points with Minnesota, who earned the #6 seed by virtue of two more wins)…Anaheim set club records for wins and points in one season, surpassing the old records held by the 1996-97 Ducks (36-33-13 for 85 points)...the Ducks also finished 13 games over .500, after never being more that five games over .500 at any point during a season until this year (high-water mark was 14 games over, 40-26-9-5 after winning Apr. 1 @ NSH)…the Ducks clinched their third playoff berth in team history (also '97 & '99) on Mar. 24, when Calgary defeated Phoenix at the Saddledome... about 90 minutes later that evening the Ducks made the Phoenix loss moot, completing a 5-0 shutout vs. Columbus at the Pond.

THESE CLUB RECORDS ALSO FELL:

The Ducks had their most successful season both at home and on the road…Anaheim finished 18-17-2-4 for 42 points on the road this season, the first season at or above .500 in team history away from home…the Ducks broke the mark for road points by earning their 42nd on Apr. 1 @ Nashville (1993-94 team had 41 points with a 19-20-3 record)…Anaheim finished just one win short of the road win record, also held by the 1993-94 team...at home, the Ducks broke the team record for points with 53, going 22-10-7-2...Anaheim finished one win shy of tying the club record for home victories (both HOME records were set in 1996-97, 23-12-6 for 52 points)...the Ducks also broke club records for lowest GAA (2.32, previous record was 2.39 set 2001-2002), fewest goals allowed (193, record was 198 set 2001-2002), power play goals allowed (42, record was 46 set 2001-2002) and penalty killing percentage (87.4%, record was 86.1% set 2001-2002).

2001-02 SEASON:

The Ducks finished the season 29-42-8-3 for 69 points…Anaheim went 15-13-2-0 in the last 30 contests...the Ducks had the best defensive season in franchise history...they had a team GAA of 2.39 (ranking ninth in the NHL) allowing just 198 goals the entire season…the previous club records were 206 goals allowed for a 2.48 GAA set in 1998-99…. Anaheim also had the best penalty kill in club history...the PK unit killed 284-of-330 (86.1%) penalties, bettering the club record of 84.5% set in 1998-99...the fewest PP goals the club had allowed in a season was also set in 98-99, when it gave up 60 power play markers...in 2001-2002, the team shattered that record by allowing just 46 power play goals... Goaltender J.S. Giguere finished 2001-2002 with the fifth-best goals against average (2.13) and tied (with Burke & Khabibulin) for the fifth-best save percentage (.920) in the NHL...he shattered the club record for lowest goals-against average, well ahead of Guy Hebert's 2.45 GAA in 1998-99…Paul Kariya finished the 2001-2002 regular season as the Ducks leader in goals (32), points (57), power play goals (11), game-winning goals (8) and shots (289)…defenseman Keith Carney led the team with a +14 rating in his first season with the Ducks…Head Coach Bryan Murray finished the 2001-2002 regular season ranked seventh in all-time coaching wins…he moved into seventh place with his 501st win on Jan. 26 @ Nashville (3-1 final)...his historic 500th NHL coaching win came the previous night on Jan. 25 @ Dallas in a 6-1 triumph (eighth coach in NHL history with 500 wins)…Murray also became the eighth coach in NHL history to coach 1,000 games on Nov. 28 vs. Edmonton.

1997-98 SEASON:

The Ducks finished the season 26-43-13 for 65 points…the club went 6-7-4 over the last 17 games…Anaheim enjoyed the most success vs. the Atlantic Division, going 7-3-4 (.643 winning percentage) - marking the second best winning percentage vs. any division in franchise history (record is 66.7%, set in 1995-96 when the Ducks went 8-4-0 vs. the Northeast)…Anaheim had three players that ranked among NHL league leaders (including rookie leaders) in several categories (Selanne, Rucchin & Cullen)…the Mighty Ducks and Vancouver Canucks opened up their '97-98 NHL regular seasons with a two-game set in Tokyo on Oct. 3-4. The games marked the first NHL regular season contests outside of North America…Teemu Selanne's sensational season included an 11-game goal scoring streak, three hat tricks, 10 game-winning` goals, a club-record 13 goals in a month (November), a hat trick in the All-Star game, a Bronze Medal at the Winter Olympics, and a league-leading 52 goals (tied with Peter Bondra)…Selanne also became just the fourth player in NHL history to record at least 25% of his teams goals in one season…Paul Kariya suffered a season-ending concussion on Feb. 1 vs. Chicago and appeared in only 22 games on the season.

1995-96 SEASON:

Final Record: 35-39-8, 78 points (fourth, Pacific)... nearly qualified for a Western Conference playoff spot (the Ducks actually finished tied-for-8th in the conference with Winnipeg, but lost the tie breaker because the Jets had more wins)... Anaheim's 35 wins and 78 points marked new club records for one season...the Mighty Ducks finished out the season strong, going 6-1-1 in their last eight games and 12-3-2 in their last 17 games...the Ducks did a lot of their late-season damage at home, going 11-1-2 in their last 14 home games…Anaheim also had a 15-6-3 record in the last 24 contests and a 17-8-3 record in the last 28...the Ducks went 33-31-8 over the last 72 games after starting the season 2-8-0...the Mighty Ducks' home record was 22-15-4 (22 home wins was a franchise record for one season)...Anaheim ended the season with a club-record nine-game home unbeaten streak (8-0-1)...the Ducks went 11-1-2 in their last 14 at the Arrowhead Pond and 13-5-3 in their last 21...road record was 13-23-4...Anaheim had one of the best records in the NHL since March 1 (12-4-3); the second-best in the Western Conference…the Mighty Ducks earned 34.6% of their points on the season in the team's 19 games after March 1...Paul Kariya became the first Mighty Duck to make First Team NHL All Star, earning a spot on the 1995-96 squad at left wing. He also won the Lady Byng Trophy for the first time in his career... Here are a few facts of how Anaheim's acquisition of Teemu Selanne affected the Mighty Ducks…after Feb. 7, the day the trade went down: Anaheim earned a record of 17-9-3 (11-1-2 at home, 6-8-1 on the road)...the team earned club-records in overall winning streak (six games, Mar. 8-22), home winning streak (five games, Mar. 8-Apr. 3), home unbeaten streak (Mar. 8-Apr. 14, 8-0-1) and overall unbeaten streak (seven games, 6-0-1, Mar. 10-24)...the Ducks' power play went 29-145 for a .200 success rate (team had only gone 31-281 for .110 before trade)...Anaheim had three hat tricks (two by Selanne, one by Garry Valk). The Ducks had only one in their history before the arrival of Selanne (Terry Yake - Oct. 19, 1993 @ NYR)... Selanne's offensive numbers with Anaheim were 16-20=36 points in 28 appearances (1.29 points-per-game)...Paul Kariya's offensive numbers were 21-23=44 points in 29 appearances (1.52 points-per-game) after Selanne joined Anaheim...The Mighty Ducks were one of only three NHL clubs (also Colorado and Pittsburgh) to finish with two players in the top eight scoring leaders in 1995-96 (Paul Kariya, 50-58=108 pts. and Teemu Selanne, 40-68=108 pts.)...Anaheim was one of only eight teams in the NHL with a .900-plus team save percentage (.906) and a team goals-against-average (GAA) below 3.00 (2.97)… Anaheim finished tied-for-fifth in the league in save percentage and 10th in the league in GAA…Anaheim goaltending combined for a .952 save percentage and 2.08 GAA in 19 games from March 1 to the end of the season…Individually, Guy Hebert finished fourth in the league in save percentage with .914 on the season and tied-for-fifth in the league in shutouts with four (three of which came in his last 14 games).

CUP IN CALIFORNIA:

By securing their first Stanley Cup championship in franchise history, the Anaheim Ducks also became the first team from California to win the Stanley Cup… their appearance in the Final marked just the fifth time since 1926 that a West Coast team competed for the Stanley Cup (also Vancouver (1982 & 1994), Los Angeles (1993) & Anaheim (2003))…the Ducks were the first West Coast team to win the Stanley Cup since the 1925 Victoria Cougars and the first U.S. team to win it since the 1917 Seattle Metropolitans.

KEEPING IT IN THE FAMILY:

Rob and Scott Niedermayer were the first set of brothers to win the Stanley Cup together since Brent and Duane Sutter won with the 1983 New York Islanders (they also won Cup with Islanders in 1982)…they were the first set of brothers to compete on the same team in the Stanley Cup Final since Rich and Ron Sutter played for the Philadelphia Flyers in the 1985 Final vs. the Edmonton Oilers (lost)...the Niedermayers were also the first brother combination on opposing clubs to appear in the Stanley Cup Final since 1946 when they met in the 2003 Stanley Cup Final.

YOUTH RAISE THE CUP:

The 2007 Champions had the largest contingency of players (11) in their first or second NHL year on one Stanley Cup roster…the 1986 Montreal Canadiens are the only team that comes close to the Ducks number of first or second year players on a Stanley Cup winning roster with 10…below is a list of Ducks that were in their first or second NHL season that played in at least one game with the club during their playoff run:

Ilya Bryzgalov
Francois Beauchemin
Ryan Carter
Ryan Getzlaf
Kent Huskins
Chris Kunitz
Drew Miller
Dustin Penner
Corey Perry
Aaron Rome
Ryan Shannon

FOUR SCORE:

The Ducks were the first team since the 1989 Calgary Flames to have one player or fewer to have previously won the Stanley Cup…Scott Niedermayer was the only Ducks player who has previously won the Cup with the 1995, 2000 and 2003 New Jersey Devils…the 1989 Flames entered the Stanley Cup Final without a single player who had previously won a Cup.

ROOKIES CHIP IN:

The Ducks had five rookie players on their roster who competed in at least three 2007 playoff games…the last Stanley Cup championship team to have more than five rookies compete in at least three playoff games during a postseason run were the 1986 Montreal Canadiens, who had eight…below is a list of the rookies on the Ducks Stanley Cup winning roster that competed in at least three playoff games in 2007:

Ryan Carter
Kent Huskins
Drew Miller
Dustin Penner
Ryan Shannon

WASTING LITTLE TIME:

The Anaheim Ducks secured the Stanley Cup in just 21 games…with the 1992 Pittsburgh Penguins, the Ducks were the 5th (tied) fastest run to winning the Stanley Cup in NHL history since the best-of-seven series was implemented in 1987.

SWEDE SUCCESS FOR PAHLSSON:

Center Samuel Pahlsson, not usually known as a scorer (8-18=26 in 2006-07 regular season) became a major contributor to the Ducks offense during the postseason…Pahlsson recorded 3-9=12 points in 21 playoff games and was T-6th on the team in scoring...he recorded the GWG in two of the Ducks last five wins of the postseason...he scored the lone goal for the Ducks in their Game Two victory of the SCF on May 30 vs. OTT...in addition, Pahlsson scored the game-winner in the Ducks' series-clinching Game Six of the WCF vs. DET on May 22...he also led the league in postseason faceoff wins (249) and hits (79).

GETZLAF BREAKS THROUGH:

In just his second season, center Ryan Getzlaf was one of the more prolific scorers throughout the Ducks postseason run...he earned 7-10=17 points in 21 postseason contests, eclipsing his point total in the 2006 Stanley Cup Playoffs by 10 points (3-4=7)...Getzlaf led the club in scoring, was 2nd in goal scoring and 5th in the NHL in postseason scoring...in addition, he was T-2nd in the NHL in game-winning goals (3) and short-handed goals (1)...he also had a two-game goal streak (2-0=2) May 22-28 and scored three goals in the last six games (3-3=6)...Getzlaf collected 4-4=8 points in the last eight playoff games and 4-6=10 points in the last 11 games.

S. NIEDERMAYER SHINES IN OT:

1950	Leo Reise, Jr.	Detroit	2

CHECKING LINE BECOMES SCORING LINE:

The Ducks line combination of Samuel Pahlsson-Rob Niedermayer-Travis Moen was the Ducks checking line all season, but in addition to their defensive responsibilities, all three became prolific scorers in the postseason...the line combined for 15-19=31 points in 21 postseason games, including six GWGs...Moen recorded the game-winner in Game Five of the SCF on June 6 vs. OTT (also recorded the first two-goal game of his postseason career) and the OT goal in Game Four of the CSF on May 1 @ VAN…in addition, he also scored the game-winner in Game One of the SCF vs. OTT...Pahlsson had two game-winners (May 30 vs. OTT in Game Two of the SCF, 1-0 victory and May 22 vs. DET in Game Six of the WCF, 5-3 victory) and R. Niedermayer had one game-winner (Apr. 15 vs. MIN in Game Three of the CQF)...the trio recorded a combined +24 rating throughout the 2007 Stanley Cup Playoffs.

TOI with 30:11/g.

BATTLING BACK:

On May 1 @ VAN, the Ducks rallied from a 2-0 deficit in the third period, to eventually take the game in overtime...it marked the first time the club had successfully battled back from a two-goal deficit to win in postseason history...Travis Moen scored the game-winner, just over two minutes into the first overtime, marking his first career OT goal in the playoffs...with the Ducks' OT win, teams in the 2007 playoffs with a two-goal lead at any point in the game went 42-4...the only teams to come back from a two-goal deficit in the postseason are Detroit and Ottawa…Detroit rallied from two goals down twice to eventually beat San Jose 3-2 on both occasions (April 28 @ DET and May 2 @ SJ)…Ottawa came back from a two-goal deficit to win in double OT, 4-3 against Buffalo (May 12 @ BUF).

BROTHERS TEAMING UP WHEN IT COUNTS:

Brothers Scott and Rob Niedermayer both had vital roles in three of the Ducks' playoff victories...on May 3 in their series-clinching game vs. Vancouver in the CSF, Rob's hit on Jannik Hansen helped to turn the puck over for Scott's OT goal against Roberto Luongo...on May 13 at Detroit in the WCF, Rob had the first assist on Scott's second OT goal in as many games...in Game One of the Stanley Cup Final on May 28 vs. Ottawa, both Rob and Scott assisted on Travis Moen's game-winning goal as the Ducks held onto a 3-2 victory.

DEFENSE FIRST:

The Ducks allowed just 45 goals in 21 2007 Stanley Cup Playoff games…the club allowed an average of 2.14 goals-per-game, good for 3rd in the NHL in the postseason.

NIGHT OWLS:

The Ducks' double-overtime, series-clinching win on May 3 vs. VAN in Game Five of the CSF was the club's seventh multiple-overtime game in club history... the Ducks have gone 4-3 in those seven games...the club's last multiple overtime game before May 3 came on April 27 in Game Two of the CSF vs. VAN (3-2, Cowan GWG).

HATCHING HEAD COACHES IN ANAHEIM:

Of the four teams that competed in the Western Conference Semifinals, three were led by coaches who received their NHL head coaching start in Anaheim... Ron Wilson (SJ) served as Anaheim's head coach from 1993-97, while Mike Babcock made his head coaching debut with the Ducks from 2002-04...Randy Carlyle has coached the Ducks for the past two seasons, helping the team advance to the Stanley Cup Playoffs in consecutive seasons for the first time in franchise history...Vancouver's head coach, Alain Vigneault, the only CSF coach to have not served in Anaheim, succeeded Carlyle as the head coach of the Manitoba Moose (AHL) in 2005…in addition, another Anaheim connection existed in the Stanley Cup Final…Ottawa head coach Bryan Murray was the head coach of the Ducks in 2001-2002, before taking over as GM of the club (2002-2004).

DUCKS SET PLAYOFF TEAM MARKS:

The Ducks set a club record for goals in a playoff season, scoring 46 times in 2006…other notable team records set in 2006, were most goals in a playoff game (6 @ EDM on 5/25), goals in a period (4, twice in 2006), penalty minutes in a playoff season (267) and penalty minutes in a series (vs. CGY)…the club also tied the mark for playoff goals in a series (17, vs. CGY; also vs. PHX in 1997).

ROOKIES MAKE THEIR MARK:

Of the 128 team points (48-80=128) the Ducks scored during the postseason, Anaheim rookies accounted for 12-25=37 of them (28.9%)...the 37 rookie points were the most in one playoff year since the 1993 Los Angeles Kings had 40 rookie points...of the 16 goals the Ducks scored in the Western Conference Semifinals series versus Colorado, three were scored by rookies and all but three figured a rookie on the score sheet...the last time a team had six rookies play a game in the Conference Finals was the 1991 Boston Bruins (although only one, Jeff Lazaro, played all six games of the series).

TWO STILL PLAYING:

Anaheim was the only NHL organization to have both their NHL team and AHL affiliate reach each respective league's conference final...The Portland Pirates clinched the Atlantic Division Final Series, defeating the Hartford Wolfpack four games to two to advance to the Eastern Conference Final, where they fell to the Hershey Bears 4-3.

SIX IN A ROW:

With their Western Conference Semifinal series-clinching win in Game 4 (May 11) versus COL, the Ducks tied the franchise record for consecutive playoff victories with six...the record was set during the 2003 postseason from 4/10/03-4/26/03...the Ducks swept Detroit in the conference quarterfinals and won their first two games at Dallas in the conference semifinals.

13 UNANSWERED:

The Ducks scored 13 unanswered goals, from Game 6 (May 1) versus Calgary in the Western Conference Quarterfinals to Game 3 (May 9) versus Colorado in the Western Conference Semifinals...the Flames scored at 10:18 of the first period and the Ducks scored 13 goals without allowing a goal against until Dan Hinote scored at 19:33 of the first period in Game 3...The last team to score 13 or more unanswered goals in the postseason was Detroit with 14 from 5/15/95-5/23/95.

MARCHANT TIES RECORD:

Ducks center Todd Marchant tied the club record for most assists in a playoff game with three in Game 4 (May 25) of the Western Conference Finals at Edmonton...the feat had been accomplished three times previously (Dustin Penner, 5/9/06 @ COL, Steve Rucchin, 4/21/99 @ DET and Petr Sykora, 4/26/03 @ DAL).

NOBODY BEATS THE BRYZ:

Ilya Bryzgalov tied an NHL record with three consecutive shutouts (done five times previously) in Game 7 of the Conference Quarterfinals versus Calgary (May 3), Game 1 (May 5) and Game 2 (May 7) of the Conference Semifinal versus Colorado... In addition Bryzgalov's shutout sequence of 249:15, is the second-longest in NHL postseason history and is the longest ever by a rookie. Gerry McNeil previously held the rookie record at 218:42...Bryzgalov stopped 98 consecutive shots.

LONGEST SHUTOUT SEQUENCE BY A GOALTENDER IN ONE PLAYOFF YEAR:

Streak	Goaltender	Team	Dates
270:08	George Hainsworth	Canadiens	3/28-4/3, 1930
249:15	Ilya Bryzgalov	Ducks	5/3-5/7, 2006
248:35	Dave Kerr	Rangers	3/25-4/6, 1937
248:32	Normie Smith	Red Wings	3/24-28, 1936
218:42	Gerry McNeil	Canadiens	3/27-31, 1951
217:54	J.S. Giguere	Ducks	5/5-16, 2003

FIRST IN 61 YEARS:

In Game 1 (May 5) versus COL, Ducks goaltender Ilya Bryzgalov became the first rookie to record consecutive shutouts in the playoffs since 1945...the last rookie goaltender to post consecutive shutouts in the postseason was Toronto's Frank McCool in April of 1945…McCool had three consecutive shutouts versus Detroit on April 6, 8 and 12...Bryzgalov tied him for the rookie record.

ANOTHER ONE FOR BRYZ:

Ilya Bryzgalov is only the fourth rookie goaltender to win all four games of a playoff series sweep...the others are Chicago's Tony Esposito in 1970 vs. Detroit; Montreal's Jacques Plante in 1954 vs. Boston; Montreal's Bill Durnan in the 1944 Stanley Cup Finals versus Chicago.

BRYZ SHUTS THE DOOR:

Ilya Bryzgalov's shutout in Game 7 (May 3) of the Western Conference Quarterfinals at Calgary was the first shutout by a rookie in a Game 7 since May 15, 1993, when Felix Potvin of Toronto shutout St. Louis...in addition, it was only the third shutout in a Game 7 by a rookie in NHL history as the New York Islanders' Chico Resch was the first goalie to do so in 1975 at Pittsburgh...Bryzgalov led the NHL in GAA (1.46), SV% (.944) and shutouts (3).

SELANNE WITH ANOTHER DUCK RECORD:

Ducks right wing Teemu Selanne had points in seven straight playoff games (Apr. 23-May 5), scoring 4-5=9 points, tying a club record for longest playoff point streak (also, Dmitri Mironov (0-8=8 points), Apr. 24-May 8, 1997).

PENNER IN THE FRANCHISE RECORD BOOK:

With three assists in Game 3 (May 9) of the Conference Semifinals versus Colorado, Ducks left wing Dustin Penner tied the franchise record for most assists in a playoff game (done twice previously, Steve Rucchin, 4/21/99 @ DET and Petr Sykora, 4/26/03 @ DAL)...his three assists are the first ever recorded by a rookie in a single playoff game in team history.

RALLY:

Anaheim's Western Conference Quarterfinal win versus Calgary marked the second time the club has ever rallied from a series deficit to win (also 1997, down 3-2 vs. PHX, won series 4-3).

DECIDING RECORD:

With their 3-0 victory in Game 7 (May 3) of the Western Conference Quarterfinal at Calgary, the Ducks improved their record in Game 7s to 2-1...the win at Calgary was the Ducks' first series clinching game on the road...in their first ever Game 7 (April 29) versus Phoenix in the 1997 Conference Quarterfinals, the Ducks won 3-0...in Game 7 (June 9) of the 2003 Stanley Cup Finals, the Ducks dropped a 3-0 decision to the New Jersey Devils.

PERFECT IN GAME 6:

With a 2-1 victory in Game 6 (May 1) in Anaheim, the Ducks extended their perfect record in Game 6s to four games...below is a list:

Date	Series	Opponent Score
May 1, 2006	CQF vs. CGY	W, 2-1
June 7, 2003	SCF vs. NJ	W, 5-2
May 5, 2003	CSF vs. DAL	W, 4-3
April 27, 1997	CQF @ PHX	W, 3-2 (OT)

TWO FOR THE ROOKIES:

Mighty Ducks defenseman Francois Beauchemin's two goals (both PPGs) in Game 3 of the Western Conference Quarterfinals set a club record for goals in a playoff game by a rookie...in addition, he tied the club record for most goals in a playoff game (eight times previously), most goals by a defenseman in a playoff game (J.J. Daigneault, Game 2 of CQF, April 18, 1997) and most power play goals in a playoff game (Adam Oates, Game 4 of WCF, May 16, 2003)...Dustin Penner tied the record with two goals in Game 4 (May 25) of the Western Conference Finals.

OH WHAT A NIGHT:

In Game 3 (May 9) at Colorado in the Western Conference Semifinals, Joffrey Lupul scored all four of the Ducks goals, including the game-winner in overtime...in doing so, he became the first player in NHL playoff history to score four goals, including the overtime winner...the four-goal game was the first ever by a Ducks player in the postseason or regular season...he's the first player to account for all four of his team's goals in a win since Maurice "Rocket" Richard did so on March 23, 1944...the feat had been accomplished twice previously...prior to Lupul's four goals, the last player to score four goals in a playoff game was Theo Fleury on May 13, 1995 for the Flames in a 6-4 win over San Jose...below is a list of players to account for all four of their teams goals:

PLAYERS TO SCORE 4+ GOALS, ACCOUNTING FOR ALL HIS TEAM'S GOALS (NHL PLAYOFF HISTORY)

Date	Teams	Goals
05/09/2006	ANA 4 vs COL 3	Joffrey Lupul 4 (win)
04/26/1993	NYI 4 at WAS 6	Ray Ferraro 4 (loss)
04/10/1986	CHI 4 vs TOR 6	Denis Savard 4 (loss)
03/23/1944	MTL 5 vs TOR 1	Rocket Richard 5 (win)
03/22/1919	MTL 4 at SEA 2	Newsy Lalonde 4 (win)

LUPUL'S BIG NIGHT:

Ducks right wing Joffrey Lupul became the first Ducks player to score four goals in a playoff or regular season game...in addition, Lupul broke the playoff record for goals in a series; he had six in four games in the Western Conference Semifinal series versus Colorado (Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne each had five goals in the 1997 Conference Quarterfinals versus Phoenix, seven games)...he has also eclipsed the record for goals in a playoff season with nine (seven was the previous record, done three times: Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne in 1997, 11 games; and Steve Rucchin, 2003, 21 games)...his three-game goal streak (6-0=6) from May 7-11, is the longest goal streak in club playoff history.

2003 PLAYOFF NOTES

DUCKS CAPTURE FIRST WESTERN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP:

The Ducks finished the 2003 playoffs with a record of 15-6, recording the highest winning percentage in the NHL (.714)…the Ducks had a 9-1 record at home during the playoffs, second only to New Jersey's 12-1 mark…Anaheim swept the Minnesota Wild to win the Western Conference Championship, advancing to the Stanley Cup Finals for the first time in club history…the Ducks became the second post 1990's expansion team to reach the Finals, following the Florida Panthers in 1996 (vs. Colorado)…since the NHL assumed control of the Stanley Cup Finals after the 1926 season, the Ducks were only the fourth team in league history from the Pacific Time Zone to reach the Finals (Vancouver in 1994 and 1982, Los Angeles in 1993).

TEAM DEFENSE LEADS TO NHL RECORD:

The Ducks set an NHL record in their Western Conference Finals series vs. Minnesota, allowing the fewest goals against in a best-of-7 series by allowing just a single marker to the Wild...Andrew Brunette scored at 4:37 of the first period in Game Four to notch the first Minnesota goal...the 1935 Toronto Maple Leafs and 1952 Detroit Red Wings each surrendered two goals in four-game series.

OVERTIME MAGIC FOR DUCKS IN 2003:

The Ducks went 7-0 in overtime in the 2003 playoffs, becoming the first team in NHL playoff history to go undefeated in OT when playing in at least six such contests…the seven consecutive overtime wins was second only to the 1993 Canadiens (10) for consecutive OT wins during one playoff season (Montreal finished 10-1 in OT)… Anaheim was the first team in NHL history to win four games in overtime in their first six postseason contests (Ducks were also the sixth team in NHL history to PLAY in four OT games in the first six playoff contests...the Ducks also became the first team since the 1994 Vancouver Canucks (April 26-30) to win three straight playoff games in overtime (no team has ever won four straight)...the Ducks won three straight spanning Game 4 of the conference Quarter-Finals (Apr. 16) and Games 1 & 2 of the conference Semi-Finals (Apr. 24-26)…the Ducks had six different goal scorers in the seven overtime games (Sykora had two; Kariya, Rucchin, Leclerc, Thomas and Salei had one).

DUCKS TAKE CARE OF BUSINESS AT HOME:

The Ducks finished 9-1 at home in the playoffs, including seven-straight home wins to end the postseason (second longest of '03 playoffs, behind New Jersey's eight)…the club's only loss was a 2-1 setback to Dallas in Game 3 of the Conf. Semifinals…the Ducks earned a record of 3-1 in Game 3, 4-0 in Game Four and 2-0 in Game 6…the club out-scored the opposition 26-to-13 at home this postseason…the Ducks allowed one-goal-or-fewer on five occasions.

WINNING THE CLOSE ONES:

The Ducks had a remarkable 12-1 record in the 2003 playoffs in games decided by one goal-or-less…the 12 one-goal wins tied the most in league history during one playoff year (also 1993 Canadiens)... The Ducks two-goal win in Game 1 of the Western Conference Finals broke a string of nine consecutive wins by a one-goal margin (4/10/03 - 5/10/03), which broke the record for one playoff year...the previous record was seven, done twice before (1989 Canadiens and 2001 Kings)...five of the games needed overtime to be decided… the Ducks eight consecutive one-goal decisions to start the playoffs tied the record for one playoff year (1989 Canadiens).

MOST 1-GOAL WINS IN A SINGLE POST SEASON:

2003 Mighty Ducks of Anaheim	12	1
2000 Dallas Stars	10	4
2000 New Jersey Devils	9	5

PLAYOFF SPECIAL TEAMS:

The Ducks went 8-for-70 (11.4%) overall on the power play in the postseason (ranking 13th)...the club was 61-for-70 (87.1%) on the penalty kill (ranking fifth)…Anaheim scored its first-ever shorthanded goal in a playoff game in Game 1 @ DAL (4/24/03 - Rob Niedermayer) and had three in the playoffs (tied for most in NHL with Ottawa).

OFF AND RUNNING:

The Ducks began the playoffs on a six-game winning streak, which was the longest of the 2003 playoffs….by going 6-0 vs. Detroit and Dallas, Anaheim became the first team in NHL history to win six-straight games to start the playoffs vs. teams that had over 100+ points in the regular season... in addition, the Ducks joined the former Minnesota North Stars (now Dallas Stars) as the only teams in NHL history to start the postseason as a road team and win six-straight...the North Stars won six straight from April 8-19, 1981.

GIGUERE MAKES HISTORY IN OT:

J.S. Giguere owns the longest scoreless OT minutes streak in NHL playoff history...he surpassed Patrick Roy to set an NHL record in Game 3 vs. New Jersey and has a current streak of 168:27...with three shutouts vs. Minnesota in the Conference Finals, Giguere was the sixth netminder in NHL history to record three consecutive playoff shutouts and the first to do so in the Conference Finals or NHL Semifinals...Giguere joined Clint Benedict (Montreal Maroons, 1926), John Ross Roach (New York Rangers, 1929), Frank McCool (Toronto, 1945), Brent Johnson (St. Louis, 2002) and Patrick Lalime (Ottawa, 2002) for that record...he also tied an NHL Playoff Record for most shutouts in a series, set eight times previously, including twice last season by Brent Johnson (St. Louis) and Patrick Lalime (Ottawa)...below is a closer look:

The Detroit Red Wings finished 43-32-7 for 93 points in the regular season, finishing third in the Western Conference. The two clubs met in the first round of the 1999 NHL Playoffs; the Ducks' second appearance in the post-season and the second playoff meeting in three years between Anaheim and Detroit. The Red Wings won the series four games to none, ending the Ducks' season with a 3-0 win @ Anaheim on Apr. 27. Teemu Selanne (2-2=4) and Paul Kariya (1-3=4) led Anaheim in playoff scoring. Marty McInnis co-led the team in goals with two power play tallies (tying with Selanne). Steve Yzerman led the Red Wings with 5-2=7 points in the series, including three power play goals. Brendan Shanahan (3-3=6), Sergei Fedorov (1-5=6) and Nicklas Lidstrom (0-6=6) all had six points in the four games. Chris Osgood was 4-0 with a 1.50 GAA in the series.

Marty McInnis (first career playoff goal) scored the first goal of the game on the power play and Teemu Selanne netted a goal in the third. Rucchin's three assists were a Ducks playoff record. Wendel Clark and Doug Brown scored the other goals for Detroit. Guy Hebert left the game midway through the second period after getting hit in the head and was relieved by Tom Askey, who stopped nine-of-11 shots in his NHL playoff debut.

GAME TWO @ DETROIT (APRIL 23, 1999), RED WINGS 5, MIGHTY DUCKS 1:

Brendan Shanahan scored 2-1=3 points in the first period to lead Detroit to a 4-0 lead at the first intermission and eventually a 5-1 win. Steve Yzerman scored the game-winning goal on a 5-on-3 power play early in the second period and Detroit went on to a 4-2 win. Sergei Fedorov scored the first goal of the game early in the first period before Marty McInnis and Jason Marshall (first career playoff goal) scored to put the Ducks ahead by a 2-1 score. Tomas Holmstrom tied the game early in the second period before Yzerman's game-winner. Both clubs went 2-for-6 on the power play and finished with 24 shots on goal.

Brendan Shanahan and Vyacheslav Kozlov added third period goals for Detroit to seal the win. The Red Wings went 1-for-2 on the power play, while the Ducks were 0-for-4. Detroit outshot Anaheim 38-31. Paul Kariya missed the contest with a broken left foot, suffered late in Game Three.

PLAYOFF SPECIAL TEAMS:

Anaheim went 4-20 (.200) on the power play in the series vs. Detroit and 16-23 (.696) on the penalty kill…the Ducks scored a power play goal in three-of-four games vs. Detroit in '99…Anaheim has never scored a shorthanded goal in a playoff game.

1997 PLAYOFF NOTES

After defeating Phoenix in the first round, Anaheim was matched up with the number three seed in the West, the Detroit Red Wings. The Mighty Ducks had defeated the Red Wings, 3-0-1, in the regular season series. The playoff series between the two would have a different result, with Detroit winning the first four games, eliminating Anaheim from the 1997 Stanley Cup Playoffs. Though Detroit officially earned a sweep in the series, it was a lot closer than the numbers would indicate. Three of the games went into overtime, including one that went into double overtime and one that went into triple overtime. The goaltenders were the stars of the series, with Guy Hebert, Mikhail Shtalenkov and Mike Vernon combining for 333 total saves on 354 total shots (.941 SV%). Paul Kariya (2-2=4) and Dmitri Mironov (0-4=4) led Anaheim in scoring for the playoff series while Sergei Fedorov (2-3=5), Vyacheslav Kozlov (3-1=4), and Vladimir Konstantinov (0-4=4) led Detroit in scoring.

GAME ONE @ DETROIT (MAY 2), DETROIT 2, ANAHEIM 1 (OT):

The Mighty Ducks were defeated by Detroit in Game One at Joe Louis Arena, giving the Red Wings a 1-0 lead in the best-of-seven series. The game was scoreless until the 19:00 mark of the second period, when Paul Kariya scored his sixth goal of the playoffs to give Anaheim a 1-0 lead. Detroit evened the score midway through the third period, with Sergei Fedorov scoring his first goal of the post-season, sending the game into overtime. Fedorov's goal was Detroit's first goal vs. Anaheim since March 12 at the Arrowhead Pond, snapping the Mighty Ducks' shutout streak vs. the Red Wings at 145:13. The goal was also the first allowed by Hebert in the playoffs since Game 6 of the Quarterfinals @ Phoenix (a span of 120:46). In the extra period, Martin Lapointe scored on a two-on-one break just 59 seconds into overtime to give the Red Wings the 2-1 win. Guy Hebert stopped 28-of-30 shots, taking the loss.

GAME TWO @ DETROIT (MAY 4), DETROIT 3, ANAHEIM 2 (3 OT):

The Mighty Ducks played the longest game in team history (since surpassed), going into three overtime periods before dropping a 3-2 decision to the Red Wings. Vyacheslav Kozlov scored a power play goal at the 1:31 mark of the third overtime to give Detroit the win. There were 101:31 minutes of hockey played in the game that began at 2:08 p.m. and ended at 7:39 p.m. The two clubs combined for 122 shots (Wings - 71, Ducks - 51), the third-most shots by two teams in NHL playoff history. Detroit's 71 shots rank third all-time for one team. These rankings are since 1963 - the earliest year Elias Sports Bureau can research the stat. Kozlov's power play goal marked Detroit's first goal with a man-advantage vs. Anaheim this season (the Ducks had stopped all 22 Wings power plays faced this season before Kozlov's score). Mikhail Shtalenkov stopped 38-of-40 shots in relief of Guy Hebert, who left the game due to injury (Shtalenkov entered the game at the 7:02 mark of the third period). Jari Kurri scored his first goal of the playoffs while Teemu Selanne added his sixth of the post-season with just 3:07 left in regulation to send the game into overtime.

GAME THREE @ ANAHEIM (MAY 6), DETROIT 5, ANAHEIM 3:

The Red Wings came back from deficits of 2-0 and 3-1 to take a 5-3 win in Game Three at the Arrowhead Pond. Anaheim took an early 2-0 lead on power play goals from Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne in the first period. Ted Drury scored early in the second to give Anaheim a 3-1 lead, but the Red Wings scored two goals to knot the score at three entering the third period. Detroit outshot Anaheim, 23-6, in the second period and 49-23 in the game. Sergei Fedorov and Vyacheslav Kozlov scored two goals just 24 seconds apart at the beginning of the third to give the Wings their third win of the series. Kariya (1-1=2) and J.J. Daigneault (0-2=2) had multiple-point games for the Mighty Ducks. Mikhail Shtalenkov, starting in place of injured Guy Hebert, stopped 44-of-49 shots in the loss (career-highs in both saves and shots until Game Four).

Nicklas Lidstrom scored for Detroit at the 9:09 mark of the third period, sending the game into overtime. After a scoreless first overtime, Brendan Shanahan scored the game-winner for the Red Wings at the 17:05 mark of the second overtime, sending Detroit to the Western Conference Finals for the third-straight season. Paul Kariya picked up an assist, giving him 2-2=4 points in the series and 7-6=13 points in the playoffs to lead the Mighty Ducks. Dmitri Mironov assisted on Brian Bellows' goal, finishing second on the club with 1-10=11 points. Ken Baumgartner assisted on Sacco's goal, earning his first point of the post-season. Mikhail Shtalenkov stopped 70-of-73 shots in the loss. The 70 saves rank tied-for-second for saves in one NHL playoff game (record is 73) while Detroit's 73 shots rank second all-time for one NHL playoff game (record is 75). These rankings are since 1963 - the earliest year Elias Sports Bureau can research the stat. Over the final three games of the series, Shtalenkov faced 162 shots (54 shots per game), stopping 152 (.938 SV%).
